

February meeting notes

Seneschal – We had a poll going on. We had 35% respond. Report is due in 3 days.

Chronicler – Report is due next month. Submissions for the spring newsletter are wanted. Need a deputy.

Exchequer – This year the regional exchequer had us send in preliminary Domesday reports. That was done.

Herald – There were three awards awarded at Candlemas (Cope – White Chamfron, Tankrid - AOA, and Gianetta - AOA).

A&S – Report is due in a couple of weeks. If you're doing something or working on a project, drop her a note. Display is at the Florence library. South Oaken A&S has been scheduled.

Fencing marshal – Nothing new. Practice has been up and down. Next Monday is questionable if we'll have a practice. Report went in on time. Need another marshal to attend.

Baron and Baroness – No report due until May. No official succession business until that comes along.

Old business:

May Day – Feast bid info. Estimated food cost is $300. Bid has feast as $10 per adult. Venison may be donated. Motion carries for the feast bid.

May Day – Need site token ideas. Coins?

New business:

Cleo – one of the original members of Fenix has passed away. The viewing and funeral are tomorrow. 9:30am at the Cathedral Basilica.

The remains of the old Pennsic gate are in Reinhold's yard. Motion has passed to get rid of the old gate.