Letter from the Baron and Baroness

Unto the generous and noble Barony of Fenix do Angus and Melisande, Baron and Baroness, send our love and warmest greetings

There is no question this has been a challenging time for all of us. The past ten months have tested us. We feel isolated, alone, and like this is never going to end. And it seems the longer we have to remain apart, the easier it is to forget the simple joys we find in this unusual, often all-consuming hobby we pursue together. The joys of a shared meal, a song, a joke among comrades as we stand on the shooting line or on the edge of a battlefield, the appreciation of a beautiful artwork.

There is hope around the corner. That corner may not be as close as we want, but we have to believe in that hope. We must believe we will be able to come together again for those simple pleasures. Like you, we have struggled through this, and some days are darker than others. But we cannot, will not let go of this dream we have shared for so long. We cannot wait to gather again, but we will wait until we can do so in safety.

Remember, we are always here for you. And we are grateful to all of you who have helped us through the hard times.

In Service and Love,

Let Fenix Rise!

Angus and Melisande
