Letter from the Baron and Baroness

Now that our first Baronial Championship event is in the books, we want to thank everyone who worked so hard to make it a success. From our hosts Zelimir and Gertrude, to the Event Steward Lady Deor, and all the marshals and combatants. Thank you doesn't seem enough.

We welcome our new champions: Baron Hengist for both heavy combat and thrown weapons; James Ashbourne for rapier; and Alannus de Bannockburn for archery. We look forward to your company and your counsel over the coming year.

Looking ahead, we hope to start seeing more of you at the weekly craft nights and the monthly socials. As Hengist mentioned on Facebook, November's social will be our annual pre-Thanksgiving gathering at Molly Malone's in Covington. This is a long-standing Fenix tradition, and we look forward to raising a glass and breaking bread with friends old and new. Many thanks to Hengist and Hypathia for getting the room reserved for us so early.

As we have mentioned at the last couple of meetings, this year's 12th Night will be a special gathering, joining Fenix with our neighbors to the North – Flaming Gryphon and Middle Marches. It should be a good time and we will post more details as we get them from our Cousins. We do plan to choose our peaceful champions that day. I know our gaming champion has some tricks up her sleeve for this year's contest.

Also, for 12th night, if you have recommendations for people whom you would like to see recognized, please send us that information privately. We would especially like to call upon the members of the Fenix Crest for your recommendations of who in the Barony is worthy of this special recognition.

Let Fenix Rise!
Angus and Melisande

Letter from the Chronicler

The quarterly report has been submitted. I am looking for a replacement. I have been the Baronial Chronicler from October 2014 to September 2016, and again from May 2017 to the present. It is time for me to pass this torch on to the next person. Please come to October's meeting if you're interested.

Thank you to everyone who sent in submissions for this quarter's newsletter! Please keep the submissions coming for the next quarterly newsletter! Officer letters, artwork, anything of interest, pictures, etc. would be fantastic!

In Service,
THL Lynne Fairchild
