Letter from the Baron and Baroness

Unto the members of our beloved Barony of Fenix do Angus and Melisande send our warmest greetings.

The cold, long nights of winter may be upon us, but neither can dampen the warmth and light which the spirit of this Barony brings to our hearts. We are grateful each day for the contributions each of you make so that our corner of the SCA can be a fun and welcoming place.

We look forward to seeing as many of you as possible at our 12th Night celebration on January 7. The site is the Mt. Carmel Social Club (704 Cincinnati-Batavia Pike, Cincinnati, OH 45245). We eagerly anticipate the entries in the arts and sciences and bardic championships, as well as the competitive spirit of those who would vie to be the gaming champion. There will be a potluck feast and court. Please see the name breakout and signup list for the potluck as well as the full event schedule on the Facebook group and website.

Plans for a May Day bid are in the works! Hope to have more information for you soon.

Let Fenix Rise!

Angus & Melisande

Meet the Barony

What is your SCA Name? Hengist Hawardessune

What are your pronouns? He / him / his

What period and culture is your persona based off of? What made you choose that? 6th century Saxon. It's a rich artist, and influential culture.

How long have you been in the SCA? 16 years +

What are your hobbies in the SCA? Fighting, leather working, armoring, brewing, metal casting.

What is something in the SCA you want to try but haven't been able to yet? Music

Do you hold any officer positions, or what have you held? I am currently the Kingdom Calendar Secretary. I have been the South Oaken Regional Seneschal, the Baronial Seneschal, the Baronial Armored Marshal, and I was the 4th Baron of Fenix.

What is your favorite memory in the SCA? When I was the King's Armored Champion ranks way up there.

What tips or advice do you have for new members? Do not join any groups or houses for at least your first year. Find your people in the Society. There are literally places we all fit best. Any modern interest you may have can be translated into a period hobby or interest.
